

Jackie Lynn Ann Fitzgerald

August 27, 1960 - January 12, 2014

Jackie Lynn Ann Fitzgerald passed away on January 12, 2014 in Glendale, Arizona. She was born in Yonkers, New York, but grew up as a child in Wilton, Connecticut. She went to Wilton High School. Her parents Arthur and June McGraw are both still living. Jackie was married to the only man she ever kissed, Raymond W. Fitzgerald Jr. They were married for 36 years and had wonderful kids. Tara Bakies, her eldest daughter gave her two beautiful grandchildren Caley and Hunter Bakies who she adored. Every Sunday was time spent with Grandma and Grandkids, this was and will be surely missed. Steven was the youngest child and Jackie was very proud of him and loved him dearly. Jackie was very proud of his culinary career and he has meant the world to her.

Jackie also left behind her best friend, her sister, her therapist, and confidant, Susan Barnett. They grew up as each others' friends and grew to be closer than twins. I know my Mom will truly be missed in deeper parts of your heart.

She was a wonderful woman with a kind heart, she would do whatever she could for those in need. She worked with the elderly and also with the young. She loved animals and also loved to collect dolls, candles, and music boxes but above all she loved her family. We will truly miss her.
